

Youth Services Support Workers

Karratha & Roebourne Youth Services

Part Time – 25 hours per week

About Us

Yaandina Community Services, situated-in Roebourne for 45 years, is the largest locally based provider of community services in the Pilbara. Our Mission is to improve the quality of life within the community through care, support and education. Yaandina also operates a youth service in Karratha.

About the Roles

The aim of the Karratha Youth Service is to engage with at risk and disadvantaged young people aged 12-18 years with a view to reducing their level of risk and managing their lives in a positive framework.

The Roebourne Youth Service is predominately centre based and operates after school activities and holiday programs throughout the year for children, and young people aged 5 – 18 years.

As a Youth Worker, you will be assisting the Coordinator and other youth workers to develop and deliver a range of culturally sensitive age appropriate programs and activities.
