We currently have a fantastic opportunity for a Kitchen Hand in our Aged Care facility in Roebourne. You will assist our Chef in creating and preparing seasonal menus that meet the dietary needs, individual preferences and cultural needs of our clients.

You will ensure that all food preparation and servicing meets the food safety standards and requirements. Your key responsibilities include:

- Assembly and preparation of ingredients for cooking as directed by the chef
- Ensure kitchen and work surfaces are clean and tidy at all times
- Maintain a high level of hygiene, including personal hygiene
- Check orders against deliveries to ensure all ordered amounts are received
- Communicate in a professional manner with clients, families, other staff and visitors at all times.

In order to hit the ground running, you will be able to demonstrate:

- Knowledge and understanding of food hygiene and food safety is required;
- Previous experience in cooking/catering, will be considered advantageous;
- Ability to work to a high standard with high attention to detail;
- Strong work ethics, including the ability to work as part of a cohesive team.

You will be required to have the following:

- National Police Clearance
- Current NDIS Screening or willing to obtain
- Desirable - update-to-date flu vaccination.

This is a dynamic and challenging but very rewarding opportunity and is the perfect role for someone with a calm, compassionate personality and a natural ability to build rapport with elderly people.

If this sounds like you, we would like to hear from you. To join our team, please send your application to recruitment@yaandina.org or call 91821172 (option 1) for more information.
